Ref. No. 4296-C.26.

Station Mangalore , Dated the 9th November 1926 .

From (Name) G. W. Wells, Esquire, M.A., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Dt. Magistrate of South Kanara.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Judicial Department.

Madras.

Sir,

In G.O. No.1 Judicial dated 2nd January 1926 the Government approved certain proposals of the Inspector-General of Police for the re-allocation of the police in the South Kanara District and these proposals were given effect to on the publication of the necessary notifications issued in G.O. No.158 Judicial dated 13th March 1926. The District Superintendent of Police, South Kanara has since then made to me certain proposals for altering the Magisterial jurisdictions of certain Sub Magistrates so as to keep conformity with the altered station limits.

2. These proposals are no doubt in accordance wit the proposals already suggested by Mr. C. B. Cunning[illegible] his report dated 15th November 1924 embodied in G.O. No.1/26. Mr. Cunningham suggested the changes mainly with a view to keep each station limits within the jurisdiction of a single Sub Magistrate so that Sub Inspectors may have only one court to attend. The proposals were discussed by me personally with the Sub Divisional Magistrates and the District Superintendent of Police. All the proposals except the one ------ suggesting the transfer of 31 villages from the Karkal Sub Magistrate to the Buntwal Sub Magistrate were accepted.

3. The transfer of the 31 villages to the Buntwal Sub Magistrate could not be effected for the following reasons. Buntwal has now a strength of 92 villages while Karkal has only 74 villages. If the change is effected the result --- would be 123 and 45 villages for Buntwal and Karkal respectively. Moreover, the Sub Magistrate, Buntwal is also a Deputy Tahsildar and his Criminal and Revenue work is already ---- heavy. The average of Police cases from these villages for the past three years is nine per annum and the maintenance of the present arrangement is not likely to cause inconvenience to the Police. It is also not in the interests of the public that they should have to traverse greater distances to go to Buntwal than to Karkal which will be the case if the transfer is ordered. The District Superintendent of Police, however is in favour of the transfer so that the Mudabidri station may be placed wholly under the Buntwal Sub Magistrate, but the Sub Divisional Magistrates, Coondapoor and Mangalore who were present along with the District Superintendent of Police at the meeting held on 1st November 1926 to discuss this matter are against this proposal. I agreed with them and decided that the transfer of the thirty one villages to the jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Buntwal is not feasible.

5. I request that Government may be pleased to approve under Section 13 C.P.C. of the other changes embodied in the enclosed Notifications and direct their publication in the Fort St. George Gazette. The Notifications will also be published in the District Gazette after Government have pproved the proposed changes.

Your obedient servant,

For Dt.Magistrate.

Judicial Department.

Sir, I have

Refce:- Government Endorsement No.3658 A-1 Law (General), dated 19th November 1926.

I have the honour to state that I agree to the proposals of the District Magistrate, South Kanara, contained in his letter No.4296c/26, dated 7th November 1926 for altering the magisterial jurisdiction in respect of the villages specified in the notifications attached thereto, and also to the retention in the jurisdiction of the Sub-Magistrate, Karkal, of the 31 villages which should be transferred to the Sub-Magistrate, Buntwal according to Mr. Cunningham's proposals. Crime is not heavy in these villages and the dual magisterial jurisdiction over the villages of the Mudabidri police station matters little in the present state of affairs.

The enclosures received with the Government reference are returned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

REFERENCE.

The Board submits a statement showing the alterations

District Magistrate, South Kanara, in his letter dated 7-11-26. Only three of these Sub Magistrates viz. the Sub Magistrates of Buntwal, Hosdrug and Beltangadi exercise the powers of Deputy Tahsildars.

2. The present District Magistrate reports that the proposed changes violate the principle that the magisterial jurisdictions of Deputy Tahsildars should coincide with their revenue charges. The Board in consultation with the Collector has examined the possibility of redistributing the revenue jurisdiction of the areas affected so as to render the proposed revision possible without violating the above principle and agrees with the Collector that this is impossib. The Collector adds that the proposals were not initiated to suit the convenience of the public or the magistracy but on account of alterations in the police jurisdiction over these villages. He therefore suggests that all the proposals except the last viz. the transfer of Badaga-arandur and five other villages from the jurisdiction of the Deputy Tahsildar Sub Magistrate, Buntwal (Mangalore ivision) to that of the Deputy Tahsildar-Sub Magistrate, eltangadi (Puttur division) may be dropped.

As the last proposal is the one that will be a onvenience to the public if carried out, the Board upports the Collector's present recommendation. These illages at present are under the revenue jurisdiction of the Tahsildar of Karkal (Coondapur Division) although they fall under the magisterial jurisdiction of Deputy Tahsilda Buntwal (Mangalore division). A sketch and draft notifications for giving effect to the alteration in jurisdiction now recommended are submitted.

[illegible] [Endr. to the D.G of Police, no. 3648 A/D/19.11.26]

[illegible] [C no. 173 A] from the D.G of Police, [illegible] 206 [illegible] dt. 7.12.26

The D.G of Police agrees to the changes proposed by the D.C. South Kanara. But it is not known whether the Revenue and magisterial jurisdictions coincide in these cases as ordered by H.E.C2 on page 42 of G.O. 3741 Law(G) dt. 7.12.26. The remarks of Revenue may be invited no.

RSV 26.1.27

The changes are from the jurisdiction of one Sub magte to another Sub magte. There cannot therefore be any changes in the Rev jurisdiction unless these S.M's exercise the powers of a Dy Tah's. Have we any info's on this point?

27/1

Subd there is no information in this dept as to which of the Sub magistrates are Dy Tahsildars. Some of the Sub. magistrates mentioned by the D O C, except those on page 4 cf who are called Stationary Sub-magistrates, would appear to be Dy Tahsildars. The D.O.C. does not, however, seem to have given the correct designation, as the Officer in Kasargod is called 'Stationary Sub-magistrate' in one place and merely 'Sub magistrate' in another place - vide ff 3 & 4 cf.

I don't think so

A minor point

Will Rev please say whether any of the Sub magistrates referred to by the D.C. exercise the powers of a Dy Tah: & also whether the proposals affect the Rev jurisdiction?

From the Board of Rev., Lr. d. Sett. Ref. no. A.1405.
27.4 & 25.8.27

To A.S.

In their order no. 1 Judl. of 2.1.26, the Govt. approved certain proposals of the D.I.G. of Police for the reallocation of the police in the S. Kanara Dt.; and in their order no. 158 Judl. of 12.3.26, the Govt. ordered the publication of notifications in the Fort St. George Gaz. giving effect to the changes.

2. At the instance of the D.S.P. S. Kanara, the Dt. magte. has now proposed the transfer of certain villages in S. Kanara from the jurisdiction of the Sub-magtes. of Kasaragod, Puttur, Hosdurg, Bantwal & Mangalore to the jurisdiction of the sub-magtes. of Hosdurg, Bellangady, Kasaragod & Bantwal, so as to keep in conformity with the altered police jurisdiction. The D.M. has also submitted notifications under sec. 12 C.P.C. for the approval of the Govt.

3. The Law (Genl.) Dept. enquire whether any of the sub-magtes. referred to in paragraph 2 above exceed the powers of a Dy. Collr.

whether the proposals affect the revenue jurisdictions.

4 The Board of Rev. has been consulted. The Board reports that of the sub-magistes in question, the S.ms of Bantwal, Moodbidri & Bellangadi exercise the powers of Dep. Subs and that the present D.m. reports that the proposed changes violate the principle that the magisterial jurisdictions of Dep. Subs should coincide with their revenue ~~jurisdictions~~ charges. The Board has examined the possibility of redistributing the revenue jurisdictions of the ~~sub~~ S.ms in question so as to render the proposed transfers possible without violating the principle referred to above and considers that this is impossible. The Board has therefore supported the Coll's recommendation that all the proposals of the D.m. except the proposal to transfer certain villages from the jurisdiction of S.m. of Bantwal to that of the S.m. Bellangadi may be dropped and has accordingly submitted a sketch & draft notification for giving effect to the alteration.

Submitted that the Board's proposal may be accepted in this dept. and the file may be sent to Law (Genl.) for remarks on the revised proposal.
